

Gran Tierra Energy Inc. together with its subsidiaries is an independent international energy company currently focused on oil and natural gas exploration and production in Colombia and Ecuador.

Senior Development Engineer
Calgary
(Posting Number CA-24-09)

Responsibilities:

Reporting to the Director, Asset Management, Putumayo South & Ecuador, the Senior Development Engineer will work as part of a multidisciplinary team to ensure the optimization of the asset. Asset Management is responsible for overall profit and loss of the asset they are responsible for and the central team to drive development and execution

Specific responsibilities include:

- Analyze performance of wells and reservoirs and provide recommendations for optimizing long-term production
- Construct development plans to maximize reserves capture and value
- Work with other disciplines to identify, plan, and support development and exploration drilling opportunities
- Identify and recommend programs for reservoir surveillance and characterization
- Calculate, report, and maintain corporate reserves
- Evaluate potential acquisitions/divestitures
- Prepare production forecasts and project economic evaluations
- Work together with production operations to ensure integrated approach to manage daily production performance
- Travel internationally and to field locations

Required Qualifications:

- Bachelor's Degree in Engineering with a Professional Engineer designation, ideally a member of APEGA
- 20+ years of related experience in the oil and gas industry
- Experience in waterflood, EOR and other subsurface techniques
- Experience generating development and optimization plans
- Experience in reserve calculations and economics
- Highly organized with excellent analytical, integration and project management abilities
- Excellent communication, interpersonal, and team skills
- Ability to travel internationally is essential