

Gran Tierra Energy requires a Communications and Government Relations Leader to work in Quito, Ecuador with the following profile.

Description:

The Communication and Government Relations Leader will lead the daily delivery of the Company's Corporate Communications and Government Relations Strategy in Ecuador. This position will support in Ecuador the Corporate Communications and Government Relations team on the internal and external communications strategies as well as Government Relations initiatives with the objective to strengthen and protect the Company's reputation.

Responsibilities:

Communications

- Support the design and delivery of internal and external communication strategies.
- Support the design of graphic material pieces for its dissemination among key stakeholders.
- Develop and lead the relationship with the local and national media.
- Develop media materials such as press releases, briefings and graphic material which are relevant to the communications strategies.
- Perform media analysis and monitoring.
- Support training sessions for the Company's spokespersons.
- Have experience in crisis management from a communications perspective.
- Support any additional communications requirements requested by the corporate office.

Government Relations

- Support the implementation of comprehensive government relations strategies in alignment with the Company's objectives.
- Build and maintain relationships with government officials, agencies, legislators, and guilds to influence policy outcomes in favor of the company's interests.
- Monitor and create reports about legislative and regulatory activities that could affect the company's operations.
- Work closely with internal teams to align government relations activities with overall business objectives. Participate in strategic planning processes to integrate government affairs considerations into decision-making.

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in Political Science, Public Administration, Communications, or related field.
- Master's or post graduate degree preferred.
- Minimum of 4 years of experience in government relations, public policy, or related roles.
- Minimum of 4 years of experience in strategic communications roles.
- Deep understanding of the legislative and regulatory process, preferably with experience working in or with government agencies.
- Strong analytical skills with the ability to assess complex policy and strategic communications issues and develop effective strategies.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills, with the ability to build consensus and influence decision-making.
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively in a fast-paced environment, managing multiple priorities effectively.
- Knowledge of O&G issues and stakeholders is a plus.
- This position requires an advanced level of English.

OPENING AND CLOSING DATE OF THIS VACANCY: From June 19 to July 12, 2024.

Please send your resume in Spanish and English to the following two emails:

jazmingarcia@grantierra.com, soledadfigueroa@grantierra.com.

*Only Ecuadorian Nationals will be considered for this position.