

Gran Tierra Energy requires a Communications and Government Relations Junior Professional to work in Quito, Ecuador with the following profile.

Description:

The Communication and Government Relations Junior Professional will support the daily delivery of the Company's Corporate Communications and Government Relations Strategy in Ecuador. This position will support in Ecuador the Corporate Communications and Government Relations team on the internal and external communications strategies as well as Government Relations initiatives with the objective to strengthen and protect the Company's reputation.

Responsibilities:

Communications

- Support the design and delivery of internal and external communication strategies.
- Support the design of graphic material pieces for its dissemination among key stakeholders.
- Support relationships with the local and national media.
- Develop media materials such as press releases, briefings and graphic material which are relevant to communications strategies.
- Perform media analysis and monitoring.
- Support training sessions for the Company's spokespersons.
- Have experience in crisis management from a communications perspective.
- Support any additional communications requirements requested by the corporate office.

Government Relations

- Support the implementation of comprehensive government relations strategies in alignment with the Company's objectives.
- Monitor and create reports about legislative and regulatory activities that could affect the Company's operations.
- Work closely with internal teams to align government relations activities with overall business objectives. Participate in strategic planning processes to integrate government affairs considerations into decision-making.

Qualifications

- Bachelor's degree in Political Science, Public Administration, Communications, or other related field.
- Between 4-6 years of experience in government relations or strategic communications roles.
- Understanding of the legislative and regulatory process, experience working in or with government agencies would be considered an asset but is not a requirement for the role.
- Strong analytical skills with the ability to assess policy and strategic communications issues and develop effective strategies.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills, with the ability to build consensus.
- Ability to work independently and collaboratively in a fast-paced environment, managing multiple priorities effectively.
- Knowledge of O&G issues and stakeholders is a plus.
- This position requires an advanced level of English.

OPENING AND CLOSING DATE OF THIS VACANCY: From January 23rd to February 7th, 2025. Please send your resume in Spanish and English to the following two emails: jazmingarcia@grantierra.com, soledadfigueroa@grantierra.com.

Only Ecuadorian Nationals will be considered for this position.